Baratto Wines

Farm 674 Murrumbidgee Ave, Hanwood
 Phone: 6963 0171 | www.barattowines.com
 Open most days

It has been a Baratto family tradition in Italy for many generations to make wine for themselves and the locals in their village. In 1949, Florindo Baratto immigrated to Australia and purchased bare land in Hanwood. He and his wife Amabile planted their first vines in 1960 and some of these vines are still producing grapes today. Baratto Wines produces traditional varieties such as Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon, Shiraz, Chardonnay, Semillon & Trebbiano. Wines available in bottle as well as 14L casks.
